BANPONG

- Sources:
- A. PW M-1480, Sergeant of 2 Fd Hosp, 54 Div. Intelligent, cooperative, and thought to be reliable. He was in BANPONG Sep - Dec 44, attached to 2 Fd Hosp.
 - B. PW M-1453, private of 1 MG Coy, 55 Div. Moderately intelligent, cooperative, and thought to be reliable. He was in BANPONG L of C Barracks for a week in Jul 44.

Sources A and B pinpointed the following barracks, depots etc on air photos of the area. See accompanying sketch.

1. Gendarmerie Detachment HQ. Source A.
2. Supply Depot. Source A.
3. Supply Depot Barracks. Source A.
4. L of C Unit HQ and Barracks. Source A.
5. Allied PW Camp. Source A. (Comment: Source is not certain of the exact relative areas of 5 and 6).

Source A stated that, during his stay in BANPONG Hospital, he saw many British and Australian PWs. The Hospital used about 20 Allied PWs every day; they included:

- 1 Pharmacist
- 4 Cooks
- 15 General Helpers.

The Allied PW Camp consisted of 3 barracks surrounded by a bamboo fence, about 7 feet high. Source stated that the PWs used in the hospital appeared to be fairly fit and cheerful. He had no knowledge of actual camp conditions.

6. Barracks. Source A.
7. Comfort House. Sources A and B.
8. Barracks, GI BUTAI. Sources A and B.
9. Quarantine. Source A.
10. Transit Camp. Source B.
11. Transit Camp where Source B stayed for a week. Two barracks, 150 men in each. Source A confirmed.
12. Barracks, GI BUTAI. Sources A and B.
13. Barracks. Source A.
