On providing the Image File of Japan's Military "Comfort Station" Map

The Japan's Military "Comfort Station" Map (Hereafter, the "Map") was created by the Women's Active Museum on War and Peace (WAM) based on the intensive research that includes survivors' testimonies, soldiers' testimonies/memoirs, eyewitness reports, and official documents.

We provide the image file of the "Map" for free of charge. Upon using the image file of the "Map", please note the following conditions and requests.

1. The image file that can be provided is shown in the following page. Please indicate the number and language of the image file you wish to use in the Request Form.
2. Any revision or alteration of the provided image file of the "Map" is strictly forbidden. Please use the file only in the form provided, including the display of copyright (© Women's Active Museum on War and Peace (WAM)).
3. Please do not use the image file of the "Map" in any medium or purpose other than that originally informed to WAM. Please discard the image file after use. In case you'd like to use for another purpose or medium, please send a request form again.
4. Please do not share the image file of the "Map" with other organizations or individuals.
5. Please provide WAM with a printed copy of the material in which the "Map" appears for our records.
6. The update of the "Map" is being in progress. We welcome donations in support of the ongoing research.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact us.
